Section 4: Deposit

All wedding packages, regardless of total, require a deposit to save the wedding dates mentioned on page 2. Wedding dates are booked for the entire day with our company, so nothing can get in the way of timing, travel, etc. This is a non-refundable deposit. $100 deposit will come off total when payment is due in full.

Section 5: Photographers

By default, all of our weddings are shot with (2) photographers. One male, one female. To cover all aspects of your event, including the "Getting Ready" time frame (IF booked / selected). Genders must stay with same genders for this, or any other intimate sessions during any part of our time with the clients.

Section 6: Split photographers

While "Getting Ready" photo shoots have become quite popular, please keep in mind that these are not always done on the same location as the wedding. IF booked, the female photographer would be dropped off and left with the bride for her session time. The male photographer would meet up with the groom for his. IF in separate locations, and a different location of the wedding, the female photographer is to be transported to the ceremony location WITH the bride to ensure proper arrival time to help and assist in covering the Ceremony. Some of our wedding locations are 100+ miles away, so we DO NOT use more than one vehicle to transport ourselves and equipment. This rule has ZERO exceptions.

Section 7: Ceremony Shooting

Anyone with a camera or phone thinks they are a photographer nowadays. This thinking can cause us serious problems in covering your ceremony. It is very important your guests are aware that you have paid photographers on site for your wedding to cover your photos. We are not responsible for missed shots due to someone stepping out in our line of sight to take their own photos. It is also important to remind all your attending guests, if the ceremony is indoors, to prohibit them from any use of flash photography. Again, we are not responsible for missed shots if someone is firing off a flash as we try to take photos.

Section 8: 2nd Location

In the event of bad weather (including any rain), it is important you have a covered area to have on backup for your ceremony. In the event of bad weather or rain, we cannot and will not be able to shoot your ceremony or reception. It is up to you to have another location on standby, regardless of weather situations. In the event of bad weather or rain, if a wedding continues on, we are not responsible for lost coverage of your ceremony or wedding reception. We are on site, transported and used our time and day, so no refund will be awarded.

Section 9: Lighting & Flash Photography Details

It is up to you to talk it over with whomever is marrying you and covering your ceremony. Everyone has a preference if they allow flash photography while they are covering your ceremony. We MUST know this information going into the wedding, so we can setup and prepare accordingly. Check with your reception location as well.

Section 10: Heads up notices

It is important for us to know if we are covering your reception to give us some kind of heads up or warning before special instances occur during your ceremony. Dances, bouquet toss, speeches, etc. Most weddings have a best man, and they usually are responsible for letting us know before these events occur. Anyone can be selected, but it is wise to keep this in mind and chose someone to handle this so everything is covered in your photos, and we are prepared.

Section 11: Non Photographic People

Lets face it, not everyone likes their picture taken, even in special events like these. It is a good idea to let all your guests know when telling them about keeping clear of us for photos, that if they have any issues with having their picture taken, they need to let us know upon arrival. Regardless whomever it may be, we are not responsible if they play a key part in your wedding and do not want to be photographed. These would be missed shots, so we cannot be held accountable.

Section 12: Altercations with other guests

Not everyone will get along at a wedding. We are all human beings, and all have emotions and feelings. These are especially heightened during weddings. If someone is being overly rude, acting / behaving as a bully, fighting etc, we will not be a part of any of it. We have a zero tolerance policy, at any point we feel threatened or uncomfortable, we WILL step away till the situation / person is handled. We may even ask them to leave if you wish for us to continue covering your wedding day.

Section 13: Photographer Breaks

Keep in mind, we are still human. In the event of your wedding lasting a whole day, or even a lot of hours, we reserve the right to take breaks every now and then, including at the same time or together. While we do know it is important to cover your wedding, we will not be on break when we know there is something important coming up that needs to be covered. (This is the reason for section 10). This may include bathroom breaks, sitting indoors or shade on hot summer days, checking and cleaning equipment, or even just being on our phones for a few minutes.

Section 14: 1 Hour Window

While we try to help you select the best wedding package for your day, most run into a time constraint. While we do expect to be covered for our time at the wedding, we are ok with going over a bit if needed. The 1 hour window ONLY applies to overages from what has been paid. If were needed for a shorter amount of time then what has been paid, we will not refund any of the price paid for your wedding coverage. In the special circumstances that a wedding is way shorter than paid for, we may apply print credit to compensate for the cost.

Section 15: Photo Delivery Timing

All of our prints come from a lab that are mailed directly to you. The turn around time varies due to editing, final photo chosing, and demand of the printing lab.

Section 15: Photo Delivery Timing (Continued)

Digital drives, discs and online downloads are usually ready within a week or less. Higher wedding packages do have a faster turn around, but are marked “Usually”, meaning they are a higher priority, however due to photo amounts, limitations they can still take up to a week to be delivered, even digitally for downloading.

Section 16: Equipment Damage

In any incident where someone causes damages to our equipment, a fee may be applied for said damages. This does not include weather related incidents, or incidents where we were involved in the accident or damage. For instance: a camera bag is sitting in our designated area, someone moves it, takes it, drops it, spills something on it, etc, It is your responsibility to take action with the person to retrieve all funds charged to you over the incident.

Section 17: Loss Of Files

While we do have multiple fail safe systems in place for protecting all your photos as they are taken, equipment and electronics do fail. In the event something goes wrong, and all your photos get digitally lost before processing or uploading, we do take full responsibility for this. This is the only exception to the contract entitling you to a full refund, including deposit. While it does not make it right, or even ok in any matter that you end up not having the photos of your wedding, we do at least refund everything paid to us. We have never had an incident, and don't want too. However, equipment does fail, so this has to be considered and understood. We cover everything with multiple flash cards and cameras, and upload / copy to a laptop when we have time to prevent photo loss.

Section 18: Backup Photographers

In the event one or both of us gets sick, hurt or injured and cannot attend your wedding, replacement photographers will be attempted to be provided at no cost to you. While our company is 2 photographers, we sponsor shadowing and apprentices on a regular basis. We would send in our backup team, if needed to cover your wedding.

In the event of the day of, if we had vehicle trouble and something happened even in transport to your wedding, we will do our best to arrive early and on time. While some things are out of our control, we always do our best to make you happy and comfortable.

Section 19: Special Location Photos

While we do know your wedding is supposed to be fun and memorable, keep in mind that's also why we are there with you. We love to have the time, before everyone changes and gets dirty / wet / covered in food etc, to capture more photos of your day. Usually after the ceremony, before the reception, we may go to various locations on site(s) to take more photos of your wedding party. Keep in mind your first kiss at your ceremony, right behind you from where we would take a photo, is the Officiator. Usually in the same or different locations, we will get more photos of the two of you, along with more of your direct wedding party.

80% of our largest printed wedding photos are the ones taken at this time!

Section 20: Changes to Wedding

While it is important for you to put every small finishing touch on your wedding day, it is also very important to let us know as changes are made, if any are major. Although wedding times and locations get shifted around a little bit, we usually reserve the day for your wedding, so we can be flexible on timing and where we are supposed to go. If for some reason there has to be changes to the date, this can be allowed, but is subject to availability. Even shifting one day can cause us to be unavailable for your wedding. If the circumstances arise, the $100 deposit is still non-refundable, and cannot be transferred to a different event or wedding.

In the event of a breakup, we deserve the right to know immediately. When we book your date, we turn other clients away or adjust them to availability. The $100 deposit here, is also non refundable due to a break up.

Section 21: Payment

Total deposit is due within 10 days of contract signing. We book weddings as far as 2 years in advance, so its important to lock down your date(s). No dates are locked into our schedule without the deposit, even with a signed contract.

PROOF OF PAYMENT. Proof of payment will be a digital version of this contract emailed to you, with the owner signature and checked box on form. By receiving this form in email, the contract is bind-ed in both parties, and cannot be altered in any further way. Remainder payment is due by the day of the services of the wedding.

Section 22: Wedding Payment Plans

Wedding payment plans are available for Platinum and Diamond packages only. While the same deposits for the packages are required. Usually payment in full is due at time of services or paid in full before. With the payment option, you have the right to make smaller payments over a longer period of time, up to one (1) year. After a total is created for your wedding, deposit is paid. The remaining payment can be broke down up to twelve (12) monthly payments, even if this continues past your wedding date or time of services.

Payment plan details are to be discussed and configured at the time of contract signing. Payments are to be setup monthly, if agreed too, and to be paid each month by or on the same day as deposit, or agreed upon date. Due to understanding paydays, there will be a five (5) day window in which the payment can be made. After five (5) days of non payment, a ten dollar fee ($10) will apply as a late charge each time a payment is late. ($20) after 30 days.

In the result of non-payment before services longer than thirty (30) days, we hold the right to refuse services until caught up on payments.

In the result of non-payment after completion of services, the remainder of the balance can be taken to court, in which the client will be responsible for payment of any services including: court costs, loss of time worked, etc. as well as an added $50 fee to remaining balance.

Payment plans cost $50. Amount is applied to total cost at time of contract. Wedding payment plans are non-refundable up to 50% of the total cost regardless of situation, including deposit.
